

Credit Counselling Thames Valley Joins Credit Counselling Canada

July 24, 2018 London, Ontario

Credit Counselling Thames Valley, a division of Family Service Thames Valley, is the longest serving not for profit financial counselling operating in London, Middlesex, Elgin and Oxford Counties. Serving our community for over 50 years, with a population base of over 600,000 people Credit Counselling has helped over 50,000 people to date.

Today we are pleased to announce our acceptance of membership with Credit Counselling Canada, a national association of not for profit organizations from coast to coast. These agencies are known for their collaboration and partnerships to create innovative programs to educate thousands of Canadians on personal finance. Credit Counselling Canada through its 18 member agencies served over 38,000 new clients in its last fiscal year and over 117,000 Canadians through 5,500 workshops.

Credit Counselling Thames Valley is looking forward to be a part of such a dynamic national association to better serve the needs of our community. This new partnership is only one of a few new collaborative ventures to enhance our service to London and region.
